COOPERATION AGREEMENT

BETWEEN

THE UNITED NATIONS UNIVERSITY
ACTING THROUGH

THE UNITED NATIONS UNIVERSITY
OPERATING UNIT ON POLICY-DRIVEN ELECTRONIC GOVERNANCE

AND

THE UNIVERSITY OF MINHO

WHEREAS the United Nations University (hereinafter referred to as “UNU”) was established as a subsidiary organ of the United Nations by General Assembly resolution 2951 (XXVII) of 11 December 1972;

WHEREAS the Council of the UNU decided at its 61st session on 12-13 May 2014, to establish the United Nations University Operating Unit on Policy-Driven Electronic Governance (hereinafter referred to as “UNU-EGOV” or “the Operating Unit”), in Guimarães, Portugal;

WHEREAS the UNU and the Portuguese Republic have concluded on 23 May 2014 an Agreement to regulate the questions arising as a result of the establishment of UNU-EGOV (hereinafter referred to as the “Host Country Agreement”), and an Agreement on the establishment, operation and location of UNU-EGOV (hereinafter referred to as the “Bilateral Agreement”);

WHEREAS the University of Minho (hereinafter referred to as “UMINHO” or “the University”), a Portuguese public university located in Braga and Guimarães, offers a wide range of undergraduate and postgraduate education options as well as specialized training and advanced study courses, favours interdisciplinary research and education, and is strongly committed to internationalization;

WHEREAS according to Article 3 paragraph 3 and Article 5 of the Bilateral Agreement, the University shall provide to UNU-EGOV premises, including security, maintenance, equipment and running costs, personnel, infrastructure and accommodation for students;
UNU and UMINHO, hereinafter individually referred to as "a Party" or collectively as "the Parties", have agreed as follows:

ARTICLE 1 – COOPERATION

1. Consistent with their respective mandates and interests, the Parties shall cooperate in research, academic and other activities undertaken in support of the mission and programme of both Parties. Where appropriate and with consent from the other Party, the University and the Operating Unit shall list each other as cooperating institutions on any proposal submitted to pursue joint activities.

2. The Parties agree that any collaborative activity may include but is not limited to: joint research, joint academic activities like teaching and student supervision, joint events, and exchange of faculty, researchers and students.

3. Specific objectives, requirements, procedures, and financial and operational arrangements to implement collaborative activities between the Parties shall be formalized through special agreements.

ARTICLE 2 – JOINT ACADEMIC ACTIVITIES

1. The Parties shall cooperate in the development of short courses, as well as Master and PhD programmes.

2. Students participating in joint academic activities such as Master, PhD programmes or other accredited courses, will be considered as the students of UMINHO and fellows of the Operating Unit.

ARTICLE 3 – UNU-EGOV FELLOWS

1. Students involved in academic activities exclusive to UNU-EGOV (hereinafter referred to as "Fellows"), shall have the same rights and obligations as regular University students (hereinafter referred to as "Students").

2. Fellows shall register at the Academic Services of the University.

3. UNU-EGOV shall inform the University about new Fellows at least two months prior to their arrival, sending all required information to the University in order to ensure their registration.
4. The University shall provide accommodation in Guimarães to Fellows on the same conditions as it provides accommodation to its own Students. The terms and conditions shall be agreed upon by the Working Group set up in accordance with Article 12, paragraph 2 of the Bilateral Agreement.

5. Before the commencement of every academic year, based on the academic calendar defined by the University, the Operating Unit shall book the number of rooms required for current and incoming Fellows during the subsequent 12 months, ensuring their effective occupation.

6. The Fellows that receive University accommodation must comply with the accommodation rules defined in Article 5 of Normas das Residências attached as Annex 6 to this Cooperation Agreement (hereinafter referred to as “this Agreement”).

ARTICLE 4 – JOINT RESEARCH ACTIVITIES

1. The University shall enable contributions from at least ten academic staff from its various schools and institutes to dedicate their research (40% of the workload) to working with the Operating Unit. Such academic staff (hereinafter referred to as “the UNU-Associated Academics”) shall be nominated by the University based on excellent qualifications and relevance of work to the programme of the Operating Unit. The Operating Unit shall provide honorary titles to the UNU-Associated Academics that contribute to its programme and activities, and the UNU-Associated Academics shall recognize both institutions in their publications and activities. The terms of reference for these positions are described in Annex 3 hereto.

2. The academic staff referred to in paragraph 1 above shall sign the Undertaking attached as Annex 4 to this Agreement and shall perform the duties relating to their functions, as mentioned in that Undertaking. Such staff shall be made available in accordance with the modalities attached as Annex 5 to this Agreement.

3. The Operating Unit shall enable its academic staff to contribute to research and academic activities conducted by the University. Such academic staff (hereinafter referred to as “the UMINHO-Associated Academics”), shall be nominated by the Operating Unit, be integrated in the University research units, and contribute to building or strengthening the academic and research capacity of the University in the focal area of the Operating Unit. The University shall provide honorary titles to the UMINHO-Associated Academics that contribute to its programme and activities, and the UMINHO-Associated Academics shall recognize both institutions in joint publications and activities. The terms of reference for these positions are described in Annex 3 hereto.
4. In addition to UNU-Associated Academics and UMINHO-Associated Academics, UNU-EGOV and UMINHO shall encourage other academic staff to contribute to joint collaborative activities on a project basis, and shall consider such staff for possible associated status depending on such contributions.

5. The Operating Unit shall collaborate with an institutional project set up by the University to coordinate, promote and enable all collaborative activities between both Parties.

ARTICLE 5 – PREMISES

1. The University shall make available to the Operating Unit permanent premises at the Postgraduate Center, Campus de Couros (hereinafter referred to as “the Premises”), address “UNU-EGOV, Rua Vila Flor 166, 4810-430 Guimarães, Portugal”, comprising eight offices, entrance and corridor, and shall grant the Operating Unit exclusive right to occupy and use the Premises free of charge as long as the Operating Unit continues its operations in the Portuguese Republic. The extent of the Premises is delineated in Annex 1 of the Bilateral Agreement.

2. The University shall also provide to the Operating Unit free of charge, non-exclusive access to those common lecture and meeting rooms within the Postgraduate Center not attributed to the current resident programmes, assign such access on equal terms with other occupants, and provide access to the common infrastructure, utilities and services provided by the Postgraduate Center. The extent of the common lecture and meetings rooms and infrastructure available within the Postgraduate Center for shared use by the Operating Unit is delineated in Annex 1 of the Bilateral Agreement.

3. The University shall, at its expense, provide for the security service, maintenance and running costs of the Premises. It shall also provide, in the same manner, all moveable furnishings, fitting and equipment for the Premises and shall be responsible for their repair and maintenance. A list of the requirements and items corresponding to the equipping of the Premises shall be agreed upon by the Working Group set up in accordance with Article 12, paragraph 2 of the Bilateral Agreement. The furnishings and equipment are listed in Annex 1 hereto (hereinafter referred to as “the Inventory”).

4. The repair and maintenance of the furnishings and equipment installed in the Premises shall be duly recorded in the Inventory. Matters related to the major maintenance of the Premises shall be discussed and agreed upon by the Working Group set up in accordance with Article 12, paragraph 2 of the Bilateral Agreement.

5. The Operating Unit shall not be liable for any loss or damage to the furnishings, fittings and equipment, or for personal injuries to third parties or property damage occurring to the facilities except that the Operating Unit shall be liable for injury or damage resulting from gross negligence or wilful misconduct by the personnel or officials of the Operating Unit.

6. The Operating Unit shall take reasonable preventive measures to protect the life and property of third parties using the Premises.

ARTICLE 6 – OTHER SERVICES

1. The University shall provide access to the Fellows and personnel and officials of the Operating Unit (hereinafter referred to as “the Staff”) to its technology, library, recreation and hospitality infrastructure and services, granting them the same level of access and charging the same fee as borne by the staff and students of the University.

2. Technology services made available by the University to the Fellows and Staff shall include access to the Internet within the University and possibly its research and higher education partners in Portugal and abroad, access to e-learning platforms and software licenses, and other technology services made available by the University to its staff and students.

3. Library services made available by the University to the Fellows and Staff shall include access to the collections and facilities provided by the University including home loans, external document requests and reference services, access to electronic libraries and databases, and other library services made available by the University to its staff and students.

4. Recreational and hospitality services made available by the University to the Fellows and Staff shall include access to the sports, cultural, dining, transport and parking facilities of the University, and related services made available by the University to its staff and students.

5. In order to facilitate access to technology, library, recreational and hospitality infrastructure and services, the University shall issue to the Fellows and Staff the same identity cards and electronic credentials as used in the University.

ARTICLE 7 – ADMINISTRATIVE STAFF

1. The University shall provide free of charge one full-time staff on secondment to the Operating Unit (hereinafter referred to as “the Administrative Officer”) to be responsible for administrative support. The extent of administrative support provided by the Administrative Officer as well as qualifications and experience expected from any candidate for this position are described in Annex 2 hereto. The conditions of employment of the Administrative Officer will follow the rules and procedures set forth by the University.

2. The University shall provide one on-demand technical support staff (hereinafter referred to as “the Technology Officer”) to address specific information technology and related issues faced by the Operating Unit. The Technology Officer will provide technology-related services to the Operating Unit according to the standards and practices set forth by the University.

3. The administrative staff referred to in this Article shall sign the Undertaking attached as Annex 4 to this Agreement and shall perform the duties relating to their functions, as mentioned in that Undertaking. Such staff shall be made available in accordance with the modalities attached as Annex 5 to this Agreement.

ARTICLE 8 – COORDINATION AND COMMUNICATION

1. The University shall designate a focal person to act as an interface with the Operating Unit to be responsible for the implementation of this Agreement including matters relating to the Premises, students accommodation, services, staff and projects.

2. The Parties shall keep each other informed from time to time about ongoing and planning projects and activities of mutual interest, and shall consult each other regularly on the implementation of this Agreement and on the projects and activities under joint execution.

ARTICLE 9 – LEGAL STATUS

In its collaboration with the Operating Unit, the University shall recognize and respect the legal status of UNU, as specified in Article 2 of the Host Country Agreement. The Parties shall also ensure that each Party enjoys the academic freedom required for the achievement of its objectives, with particular reference to the choice of subjects and methods of research and training, the selection of persons and institutions to share in its tasks, and freedom of expression.

ARTICLE 10 – AMENDMENT

1. Either Party may request in writing to the other Party a revision, amendment or modification of all or any part of this Agreement.

2. Any revision, amendment or modification shall be mutually agreed upon by the Parties and shall be set forth in writing and shall form part of this Agreement.
3. Such revision, amendment or modification shall enter into force on such date as may be determined by the Parties.

4. Any revision, amendment or modification shall be without prejudice to the rights and obligations arising from or based on this Agreement before or up to the entry into force of such revision, amendment or modification.

ARTICLE 11 – SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES

Any dispute between the Parties concerning the interpretation or application of this Agreement which cannot be settled amicably shall be submitted, at the request of either Party to the dispute, to arbitration in accordance with the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL) Rules then obtaining. The arbitral tribunal shall have no authority to award punitive damages. The Parties shall be bound by any arbitration award rendered as a result of such arbitration as the final adjudication of any such dispute.

ARTICLE 12 – WAIVER

Nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to be a waiver, express or implied, of the privileges and immunities of the United Nations, including the UNU, which is an autonomous organ of the General Assembly thereof or of UNU-EGOV which is an integral part of the University.

ARTICLE 13 – ENTRY INTO FORCE

1. This Agreement shall enter into force upon signature by the Parties, and shall remain in force as long as the Operating Unit continues its operations under the Host Country Agreement and Bilateral Agreement.

2. The termination of this Agreement shall not affect the implementation of any ongoing projects, which have been agreed upon before the date of termination of this Agreement. In such circumstance, the Parties would agree on how to discharge any residual responsibilities to Fellows who had been involved in joint activities.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the representatives, being duly authorized thereto, have signed this Cooperation Agreement, in duplicate in the English and Portuguese languages, both texts being equally authentic, in Guimarães, Portugal, on 27 October 2014.
