

The United Nations University Institute for Environment and Human Security, the German Development Institute and the University of Bonn invite you to an evening on

ART AND SUSTAINABILITY

WEDNESDAY 3 APRIL 2019

7.00 – 8.30 P.M.

Art Presentation and Discussion
Followed by a reception

LOCATION

Senate Hall at the University of Bonn
Regina-Pacis-Weg 3
53113 Bonn

FEATURING

Tone Bjordam Artist
Dirk Wilutzky Film Producer and Director
Prof Dirk Messner Director of UNU-EHS

KINDLY RSVP BY 29 MARCH

RSVP@vie.unu.edu

Tone Bjordam will show her recent piece “Water” and focus on how nature can help to trigger a state of mind which generates new ideas and how art and sustainability can interact.

Dirk Wilutzky will show excerpts from his series “What is it to be done?” He will elaborate on his vision of a sustainable world and what art and film can do to engage all of society in the critical process of moving towards sustainability.

Prof. Dirk Messner is the Director of the United Nations University, Institute for Environment and Human Security and has spent more than three decades researching all aspects of sustainability. He will guide the audience through the evening.