

International Workshop

Tohoku University - University of Bonn – United Nations University

The Great Eastern Japan Earthquake (2011) - Lessons learned and future strategies for Disaster Mitigation

Wednesday 25 May, 14.00-17.30

Auditorium HS IV, Geozentrum, Institute of Geography, University of Bonn
Meckenheimer Allee 176, 53115 Bonn

14.00 – 14.15	Welcome note by Prof Dr. Julia Verne, University of Bonn
14.15 – 14.30	Welcome note by Prof. Dr. Jakob Rhyner, United Nations University
14.30 – 15.00	“The damage due to the 2011 Tohoku earthquake and tsunami and its lessons learned for future disaster mitigation”, Prof. Fumihiko Imamura, Professor of Tsunami Engineering and Director of the International Research Institute of Disaster Science (IRIDeS), Tohoku University
15.00 – 15.30	“Adaptation to climate change due to global warming in the field of water – The case of Thailand”, Assoc. Prof. Daisuke Komori, Graduate School of Environmental Studies, Tohoku University
15.30 – 16.00	Coffee Break
16.00 – 16.30	“How to make a healthy resilient community”, Prof. Shinichi Egawa, International Research Institute of Disaster Science (IRIDeS), Tohoku University
16.30 – 17.00	Reflections by Prof. Dr. Wolfgang Holzgreve, Medical Director and Chairperson of the University Hospital in Bonn
17.00 – 17.30	“A human security approach to building disaster resilient cities”, Prof. Dinil Pushpalal, Graduate School of International Cultural Studies, Tohoku University