Special Lecture

“Introduction to United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) and Career Development”

By Mr. Tetsuo Kondo,
Director, UNDP Representation Office in Tokyo

Summary of the Special Lecture

UNDP is part of the UN's global development network, advocating for change and connecting countries to knowledge, experience and resources to help people build a better life. This lecture will focus on the role and approaches of UNDP for achieving the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and introducing career opportunities in the organization.

About the Lecturer

Mr. Tetsuo Kondo assumed his current position as Director, UNDP Representation Office in Tokyo, in January 2014. Prior to this, he was serving as Country Director, UNDP Chad (2010-2013). He also served as Deputy Resident Representative Programme/Operations, UNDP Kosovo (2007-2010); Senior Humanitarian Coordination Advisor, UNMIT Timor Leste (2006); Senior Advisor, UNDP Regional Centre in Bangkok (2005-2006); Special Advisor to the SRSG, UN Mission for Assistance to Iraq (UNAMI), Amman and Bagdad (2004); and Special Advisor/Senior Programme Advisor, Bureau for Resources and Strategic Partnerships (BRSP), UNDP New York (2001-2004).

Before joining UNDP, he held various positions with the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Japan (MoFA) including Vice-President of UNDP/UNFPA Executive Board (Representative of Western Europe and Others Group) (2000).

He currently also serves as an Adjunct Professor (Global Health Policy) at the University of Tokyo (2011-) and as a Visiting Professor at Nagasaki University (2017-).
