

UNU Interactive Seminar on Global Issues

UNU Interactive Seminar on Global Issues # 16 –HIV/AIDS and the Security Sector in Africa–

- Date and Time: Thursday, 1 November 2012, 15:00–17:00
- Venue: 5th Floor, Elizabeth Rose Hall, United Nations University
- Speaker: Obijiofor Aginam, Senior Academic Programme Officer and Head of Section for International Cooperation and Development, UNU Institute for Sustainability and Peace (UNU-ISP); Adjunct Research Professor of Law, Carleton University, Ottawa, Canada
- Discussant: HE Ambassador Mohau Pheko, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of South Africa to Japan

Programme

- 15:00–15:05 Introduction
Eric Fong, Academic Policy Assistant, Office of the Rector, United Nations University
- 15:05–15:45 Lecture: HIV/AIDS and the Security Sector in Africa
Obijiofor Aginam, Senior Academic Programme Officer and Head of Section for International Cooperation and Development, UNU Institute for Sustainability and Peace (UNU-ISP); Adjunct Research Professor of Law, Carleton University, Ottawa, Canada
- 15:45–16:00 Commentary
HE Ambassador Mohau Pheko, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of South Africa to Japan
- 16:00–16:30 Discussion
- 16:30–17:00 Reception