United Nations University Objectives:

For the past four decades, UNU has been a go-to think tank for impartial policy-oriented research, capacity development and dissemination of knowledge in furthering the purposes and principles of the Charter of the United Nations. Research focuses on the pressing global problems of human survival, conflict prevention, development, and welfare. With more than 400 researchers in 13 countries, UNU’s work spans the full breadth of the 17 Sustainable Development Goals, generating policy-relevant knowledge to effect positive global change. UNU maintains more than 200 collaborations with UN agencies, leading universities and research institutions across the globe.

The mission of UNU is to contribute, through research and capacity building, to efforts to resolve the pressing global problems that are the concern of the United Nations and its Member States. For more information, please visit http://unu.edu.
United Nations University-International Institute for Global Health:

UNU-IIGH is one of 14 research and training centres that comprise the UNU system. As the UN think tank for global health, the mission of UNU-IIGH is to build knowledge and capacity for decision-making by UN agencies, programmes and member states about global health issues. The goal is to advance evidence-based policy on key issues related to sustainable development and health ensuring that “no one is left behind”.

We are looking for outstanding individuals with a strong commitment to service and the potential to bring a significant contribution to the expansion of UNU’s operations.
